written by a leading expert in the field this book analyses the complex relations between the european union eu as a regional organization and the united nations un as an international global governance institution is the european union a unified actor in world politics the world's leading economic power is still struggling to find its role in shaping and maintaining global peace free trade and commerce how successful is the eu s common foreign and security policy and its institutions really an assessment of the capacity of the eu to coordinate actors and policies with regards to global development the authors argue that the eu and its member states have the potential to act for global development when they are able to improve policy and actor coherence such as through better linking of bilateral and community programmes the book assesses the eu performance in the broader un setting after the lisbon treaty distinguished scholars with expertise in eu un relations use a comprehensive analytical framework of performance to examine various aspects of the complex eu engagement in un politics performance goes beyond the achievement of agreed upon objectives and engulfs the underlying intra organizational agreement reaching processes the contributors examine the output of the intra eu policy making process and its impact within the un setting they cover thematic areas of special importance for the eu such as environment human rights disarmament and peacekeeping operations as well as special un bodies and forums where the eu is particularly active such as the un general assembly and its main committees the international labour organisation unesco and the non proliferation review conferences while diplomacy is a well established topic for study global governance is a relatively new arrival to the conceptual landscape of international relations at first glance the two exist in separate worlds this book examines the relationship between these two concepts for the first time in a comprehensive manner over the years the european union has developed relationships with other international institutions mainly as a result of its increasingly active role as a global actor and the transfer of competences from the member states to the eu this book presents a comprehensive and critical assessment of the eu s engagement with other international institutions examining both the eu s representation and cooperation as well as the influence of these bodies on the development of eu law and policy the european union and global governance a handbook aims to analyse contemporary debates in european studies in order to provide lessons for the development design and normative evaluation of global governance it brings together scholars of european studies and international relations where much of the literature on regional and global governance is located thereby providing interdisciplinary lessons from the study of european union and its governance that can be used to re evaluate processes of global governance each chapter examines methodological theoretical or empirical discussions within european studies in order to draw insights for current developments in global governance this edited volume provides an innovative contribution to the debate on contemporary european geopolitics by tracing some of the new political geographies and geographical imaginations emergent within and made possible by the eu s actions in the international arena drawing on case studies that range from the arctic to east africa the nine empirical chapters provide a critical geopolitical reading of the ways in which particular places countries and regions are brought into the eu s orbit and the ways in which they are made to work for eu rope the analyses look at how the spaces of eu ropean power and actorness are narrated and created but also at how eu rope s discursive and material strategies of incorporation are differently appropriated by local and regional elites from the southern shores of the mediterranean to eastern europe and the balkans the question of eu border management is a particularly important concern of several contributions highlighting some of the ways in which the union s border work is actively re making the european space this book launches a research agenda for the eu io relationship and provides a comprehensive understanding of the eu s policy in this area it features case studies on the un imf tto nato osce ilo and the icc

a comprehensive analysis of the european union s foreign policy over 40 years this study describes how multilateralism has been used in the fields of peace security and military crisis management relying on detailed case studies this new research looks at interventions in macedonia the balkans the congo and chad and assesses eu s cooperation with nato and the united nations during these emergencies

two major themes in contemporary international relations sino european relations and global governance are both addressed in this volume in its focused analysis of sino european relations global governance serves as both a topic for analysis and a conceptual framework to join together individual chapters featuring perspectives from a diverse group of established and promising young scholars from china europe and elsewhere this book has important implications for chinese foreign policy the european union the future of global governance and international relations at large area studies regional sustainable development review europe theme is a component of encyclopedia of area studies regional sustainable development review in the global encyclopedia of life support systems eolss which is an integrated compendium of twenty one encyclopedias this theme on area studies regional sustainable development review europe reviews initiatives and activities towards sustainable development in europe such as international cooperation toward sustainable forest management sustainable mountain development in europe promoting sustainable agriculture and rural development protection of the quality and supply of freshwater resources local authorities initiatives in support of agenda 21 europe strengthening the role of farmers transfer to and within europe s rural areas exploring pathways to sustainable living emancipatory environmental education the development of international agreements covering the world's forests the nature of peace and security the ethics of sustainability sustainable transport in europe resort europe the limits of mass tourism and the rise of sustainable practices although these presentations are with specific reference to europe they provide potentially useful lessons for other regions as well this volume is aimed at the following five major target audiences university and college students educators professional practitioners research personnel and policy analysts managers and decision makers ngos and gos describes progress being made and barriers to progress on environmental policies and programmes in the countries of eastern europe causasus and central asia this book provides novel and in depth perspectives on evaluating environment and sustainability issues in developing countries evaluating environment in international development focuses on the approaches and experiences of leading international organizations not for profits and multilateral and bilateral aid agencies to illustrate how systematic evaluation is an essential tool for providing evidence for decision makers moving beyond projects and programmes it explores normative work on the environment as well as environmental consequences of economic and social development efforts this new edition reflects on the 2030 agenda for sustainable development and sustainable development goals and considers how they have influenced efforts in a wide range of countries and what the implications are for evaluation it also explores ways in which big data and geospatial approaches might be utilized significantly updated throughout to reflect recent developments in climate change research and on the implications of the 2020 pandemic this volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of environment studies development studies international relations sustainable development and evaluation as well as practitioners in international organizations and development and environmental ngos the open access version of this book available at taylorfrancis com books 9781003094821 has been made available under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 4 0 license developed in partnership with the international political science association this must have authoritative political science resource in eight volumes provides a definitive picture of all aspects of political life this report outlines the work carried out in 2007 by the various bodies and sectors of activity of the council of europe promoting constitutional law is an important sphere of action for german foreign and development policy it is not a monopoly of the state however but is implemented by numerous organizations in germany the chances of a project succeeding and also plausible assumptions about its effects presuppose a knowledge of how to promote constitutional law that has so far not been systematically appreciated and processed either in german language research or in practice this handbook fills that gap by comprehensively bringing together practical experience for the first time and linking it with the results of current legal and sociological research the conceptual and theoretical foundations for promoting constitutional law are discussed as are various objectives and instruments this is based on a broad concept of promoting constitutional law that includes interfaces with other policies such as human rights promoting democracy promoting good governance and security sector reform the 70 authors combine many years of experience in practising the promotion of constitutional law promotion and in legal and social science research this book explores the eu s effectiveness as an international mediator and provides a comparative analysis of eu mediation through three case studies the conflict over montenegro s independence the belgrade pristina dialogue between kosovo and serbia and the geneva international discussions on south ossetia and abkhazia the book starts from the observation that the eu has emerged as an important international provider of mediation in various conflicts around the world against this background the author develops an analytical framework to investigate eu mediation effectiveness that is then applied to the three cases the main finding of the book is that eu mediation has a stabilising effect on conflict dynamics making renewed escalation less likely and contributing to the settlement of conflict issues at the same time the eu s effectiveness depends primarily on its ability to influence the conflict parties willingness to compromise through conditionality and diplomatic pressure this volume provides a short and accessible introduction to the organization that serves as the primary coordinator of the work of the un system throughout the developing world the united nations development programme undp the book traces the origins and evolution of undp outlining how a central un funding mechanism and field network developed into a more comprehensive development agency evaluates the undp s performance and results both in its role as system coordinator and as a development organization in its own right considers the return of the undp to a more central role within the un development system in order to review the successive attempts at un development system reform the reasons for failure and the future possibilities for a more effective system with the undp at the centre offering a clear comprehensive overview and analysis of the organization this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of development studies international organizations and international relations the book examines the evolution of eu conflict prevention as an internal eu process and as an area of external cooperation with the un osce and nato conflict prevention has emerged as a prominent eu policy in the post cold war era yet how suited is the organisation to practice conflict prevention and what does the record of cooperation with other key european organisations tell us about the eu s external priorities the book critically analyses the eu s policy and outcomes to date concluding that conflict prevention is underdeveloped by the eu and is in danger of being marginalised in favour of shorter term crisis management moreover eu external cooperation reinforces this the priority is cooperation in crisis management with the un and nato rather than longer term cooperation with the osce
