over the years the european union has developed relationships with other international institutions mainly as a result of its increasingly active role as a global actor and the transfer of competences from the member states to the eu this book presents a comprehensive and critical assessment of the eu s engagement with other international institutions examining both the eu s representation and cooperation as well as the influence of these bodies on the development of eu law and policy while diplomacy is a well established topic for study global governance is a relatively new arrival to the conceptual landscape of international relations at first glance the two exist in separate worlds this book examines the relationship between these two concepts for the first time in a comprehensive manner only six years sets this second oecd investment policy reviews myanmar apart from the first review published in 2014 but much progress has occurred in investment policies and related areas in myanmar in the interim nonetheless the reform momentum needs to be sustained and deepened for the benefits of recent investment climate reforms to be shared widely and for growth to be environmentally sustainable ultimately contributing toward the sustainable development goals sdgs this paper offers some ideas on how the european union and its member states can contribute to the reform of the united nations five experts write on the following subjects security and development sven biscop human rights and protection of the environment francesco francioni peacekeeping thierry tardy un security council reform jeffrey laurenti and regional organisations and collective security kennedy graham with tania felicio a conclusion draws some lessons from the various chapters and suggests that the eu should be more involved in the un reform process this report explores the partnership between the eu and the un in peacebuilding it shows that although both organizations employ a mix of crisis management instruments and aid intended to address structural risk factors there is little agreement on what works and how these instruments should be combined it confirms that the european commission funding relationship with the un is increasingly significant in fragile states while policies are not always aligned this report argues that the key to strengthening operational partnerships is to move the needs assessment planning priority setting and resource allocation to the country level and to ensure that assistance is controlled by a partnership of national and international actors back cover this book examines experiences of romani political participation in eastern and western europe providing an understanding of the emerging political space that over 8 million romani citizens occupy within the eu and addressing issues related to the socio political circumstances of romani communities within european countries in an increasing inter connected and inter dependent world regional cooperation has immense potential countries are collaborating to address challenges that cannot be addressed individually and on regional public goods new forms of cooperation are taking place with the emergence of new regional and subregional groupings undp since its inception has supported regional cooperation through its regional programmes and engagement with regional bodies undp itself is structured along regional lines with five regional bureaux and has also established a presence in all five regions through regional service centres that support country and regional programmes the evaluation concluded that undp regional programmes have made significant and long standing development contributions they promoted cooperation among countries in building regional and national institutions as well as addressing cross border and common challenges the regional service centres have provided useful and much appreciated technical support to country offices however in all regions the contribution to results has been affected by fragmentation of regional programmes insufficient linkages with national programmes and time frames that have not taken into account the need for long term capacity development undp has yet to develop an explicit holistic and strategic business model that addresses critical capacity in country offices the provision of supplementary technical support to country offices management of the regional programme support to un coordination at the regional level and the grounding of corporate positioning in regional knowledge as a result the core recommendation of the evaluation is that the organization should develop a strategic corporate business model that covers headquarters global regional and country levels publisher s website
