the apocalypse of john belongs to the most puzzling texts of the new testament historical critical exegesis has been stressing that the book above all wishes to give a message of hope and comfort for a community under threat yet readers have also always been impressed and terrified by the many images of violence including war destruction persecution and martyrdom and the appearance of the devil and his demons this book does not allow its readers to remain neutral the present volume offers the proceedings of a conference that was held in leuven belgium in september 2009 and was organised by the general editors of the novum testamentum patristicum the conference focused on how early christian and patristic authors have coped with all these many passages that deal with various sorts of violence the volume contains essays on most of the important commentators origen tyconius lactance victorin of pettau and those of a somewhat later age andreas of caesarea oecumenius and bede but also looks at the reception history on a larger scale it also deals with issues of method in reading the book of revelation with important themes the 1000 year reign the jewish background of some of these motifs and the reception of patristic thought in the most important medieval commentator of the book joachim of fiore an innovative overview of the influence of the apocalypse on the shaping of the christian culture of the middle ages
