from acclaimed bestselling author of White Like Her my family's story of race and racial passing comes a brand new collection of stories of people uncovering their past What They Never Told Us tells the stories of ordinary people who made extraordinary life changing discoveries about their parentage and or race and ethnicity that fractured their identities the book asks the big questions who are we and what is family blending social history and personal narratives each story delves into the devastating psychological trauma of uncovering a hidden family secret with all the twists and turns of a mystery novel from how the discovery was made to why it was kept secret to the arduous sometimes disappointing quest to find the biological parent or parents to fully understand the secrecy surrounding these family secrets the book examines pre wwii and post wwii attitudes toward infertility adoption donor conception race and racial passing and unmarried pregnant women prefacing these harrowing narratives is the author s own confusing and sometimes painful journey to redefine her racial identity under the spotlight of public opinion searingly raw and honest what they never told us tells the stories that were never meant to be heard a leader s position can be a lonely one even in the best of times a school leader faces many challenges some of them daunting principals and other school leaders benefit from good mentors but now that many established principals are reaching retirement age a good mentor may be hard to find what they never told me in principals school attempts to fill the gap left by an absence of mentors drawing upon his many personal experiences as a principal in urban suburban and rural schools in the usa as well as his work in a variety of international schools mike connolly shares with leaders what they need to know in order to develop be successful and feel fulfilled in the important work of educating the students of the next generations this memoir of the author s tour of duty in vietnam in 1968 is a true account of a 19 year old s journey from a quiet civilian life in connecticut to an army infantryman in vietnam first as a private and a point man later as platoon sergeant he describes the many face to face encounters he had with the viet cong and north vietnamese army experiences that required him to remain calm and focused and the hardships he encountered and friendships he developed along the way the author was assigned to the u s army s 25th infantry division tropic lightning 9th infantry regiment manchus fourth battalion the manchus operated primarily between saigon and the cambodian border a key entry point into south vietnam for north vietnamese troops and supply caravans traveling along the ho chi minh trail the author uses the letters he wrote to his parents during his tour of duty to frame his memoir but his letters purposely omitted the details of the war he was experiencing his letters were meant to calm his parent s fears as he didn t want them to worry years later when he discovered a box full of his letters in his parents attic the memories came flooding back and he started to write these are the stories he left out of his letters the stories he did not tell mrs brown wrote the stories of her father s wwii experiences as if he had written them what do you do when you find out that your whole life could be a lie a chilling family drama for fans of sue fortin louise candlish and sabine durrant s lie with me i talked to my mother the night she died losing myself in memories of when we were happiest together but i held one memory back and it surfaces now i see a green postbox and a small hand stretching up to its oblong mouth i am never sure whether that small hand is mine but if not mine whose louise redmond left ireland for london before she was twenty now more than two decades later her heart already breaking from a failing marriage she is summoned home her mother is on her deathbed and it is louise s last chance to learn the whereabouts of a father she never knew stubborn to the end marjorie refuses to fill in the pieces of her daughter s fragmented past then louise unexpectedly finds a lead a man called david prescott but is he really the father she s been trying to find and who is the mysterious little girl who appears so often in her dreams as each new piece of the puzzle leads to another question louise begins to suspect that the memories she most treasures could be a delicate web of lies the reason for this mess there was a specific reason for writing all this in 1979 i was in a horrible car accident resulting in a double concussion permanent brain damage to my left frontal lobe and the inability to walk well riding a bike and driving a car was far down the road i lost a lot of language skills including the loss of german and puerto rican two languages i spoke well my english suffered a lot too the names of things were missing from recall producing a lot of incomplete sentences getting lost often was another reward i had a doctorate in psychology which helped the recovery process at least that part of my memory was not lost so i began rehabilitation stress proved to be a killer with too much stress any gains were lost and i had to start all over again learning to meditate helped take the edge off the damage i needed to recover my word use starting with crossword puzzle books i did thousands with increasing improvements it was frustrating to say the least i started writing opinion letters to the newspaper with many published it helped with the continuity and writing after five or six years memories started to recover and twenty years of psychiatry helped me organize the thinking process there are some memories that i would have rather forgotten but the brain is a funny organ if you have a memory that seems incomplete your brain helps by creating a logical fill in many of my written memories may have two or more versions it still makes a good story so take your pick there is no way i can choose i enjoyed the process of rehabilitation with everyday discoveries lurking around the corner 1
