what an amazing thing it is to be loved by someone but how totally awesome and mind blowing it is when we think about the fact that the one who loves us knows everything about us the good the bad and the sometimes very very ugly how do he know because the one who loves us in a way that no one else ever has claims to be god himself and there is more not only does he love us unconditionally jesus made this declaration my purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life he offers to us forgiveness peace purpose joy meaning safety significance direction in life and so much more then think of the fact that not only do we have the offer of life here and now we also have the promise of heaven when we die we also need to think about the fact that the bible teaches us that jesus is the only way we can get to heaven acts 4 12 there is salvation in no one else god has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved if that is true and remembering that the bible says believing in jesus is a life and death matter for the wages of sin is death but the free gift of god is eternal life through christ jesus our lord romans 6 23 does it not make sense to take some time to think for yourself about who jesus is and what he has done for you this is your invitation to take a few minutes every day for a week to consider jesus so make yourself comfortable sit down in a quiet place and spend a few minutes thinking about jesus we live in a day of fast information fast fingers fast food fast shipping fast words fast anger and fast judgment our fight or flight impulses keep us on high alert aided by mobile devices that vibrate each time another crisis strikes all this fastness can easily interfere with a slow intentional life grounded in god s love christian faith has deep treasures and practices to offer us how will we live and who will we be in this highly charged era where politics economics environment and social norms are under significant duress come explore quieter more intentional ways of being and how these might attune us to the slow work of god in order that we might love one another and the world as god does our chapters pair a lure to move fast with an invitation to slow becoming slow to anger is an invitation to empathy slow to judge is an invitation to humility and slow to grasp is an invitation to contentment ultimately each of these invitations is a movement toward god this is not only the best environmental sociology text i ve used but it is the best text of any type i ve used in college level teaching dr cliff brown university of new hampshire join author mike bell and new co author loka ashwood as they explore the biggest community of all and bring out the sociology of environmental possibility the highly anticipated fifth edition of an invitation to environmental sociology delves into this rapidly changing and growing field in a clear and artful manner written in a lively engaging style this book explores the broad range of topics in environmental sociology with a personal passion rarely seen in sociology books the fifth edition contains new chapters entitled money and markets technology and science and living in an ecological society in addition this edition brings in fresh material on extraction between core and periphery countries the industrialization of agriculture the hazards of fossil fuel production environmental security and making environmentalism normal written in lively prose this second edition introduces students to the major themes problems and goals of the sociological study of religions drawing on myth folklore poetry and the tales of celtic gods and heroes this little book is an invitation to readers to explore the spiritual tradition of the celtic peoples a tradition rooted in hospitality and one that is of growing importance in these increasingly fractured and troubled times an invitation to celtic wisdom is divided into three parts the celtic mystery in this section mccolman illustrates the mystery inherent in the celtic spiritual path with a brief discussion of the three streams of celtic spirituality and an introduction to thin places and holy wells the celtic saints mccolman explores how faith in the celtic saints is rooted in the desert spirituality of the early christian tradition also included are profiles of patrick brendan and bridget how to walk the celtic path in this section the author explores hospitality spiritual direction story telling spiritual power and the grail mccolman has written a splendid intro to a spiritual path that will appeal to both believers and seekers who are interested in all things celtic an invitation to cultural psychology looks at the everyday life worlds of human beings through the lens of a new synthetic perspective in cultural psychology that of semiotic dynamics based on historical work from many different fields in the social and behavioural sciences and the humanities too this perspective applied to cultural psychology suggests that human beings are constantly creating maintaining and abandoning hierarchies of meanings within all cultural contexts they experience it s a perspective that leans heavily on the work of the great french philosopher henri bergson only now being realised as a core basis for human cultural living jaan valsiner is the founding editor of the major journal in the field culture psychology and editor of the oxford handbook of culture and psychology he is the first niels bohr professor of cultural psychology at aalborg university in denmark where he leads europe s first research centre on cultural psychology weaver describes how the liberating power of gods word and his presence enabled her to overcome her own battles with fears rejection low self esteem and guilt practical life harmonisation of law a term that refers to the bringing together of two different legal traditions has developed a negative connotation when considered in the context of shari ah and common law harmonisation began to be looked at as an attempt by one legal system to impose its values on the other a major reason for that is the lack of understanding of the scope to which these two legal traditions converge one of the principal findings of this book is that shari ah and common law have many more commonalities than differences as a result the need for harmonisation between the two might have been exaggerated the similarities do not need to be harmonised rather they need to be acknowledged and appreciated if the differences between shari ah and common law which undoubtedly exist as evidenced in this book are viewed with an appreciation of the commonalities the ambience to reconcile the differences would be more conducive to the harmonisation process this book is intended to help readers better understand shari ah and common law and aid harmonisation efforts when the need arises
