Why does the EU promote democracy?

- ❑ Development policy and democratization are seen as complementary – ex. the EU Strategy for Africa adopted in 2005 identifies good and effective governance as a prerequisite for development
- ❑ Democracy provides an enabling environment for advances in:
 - ❑ sustainable development
 - ❑ long term political stability
 - ❑ conflict prevention
 - ❑ national, regional and international security

EC Communication on election assistance and observation – COM (2000)191

- Reviews the lessons to be learned from EU assistance and observation efforts between 1993 and 2000
- States the links between democracy, development and peace:
 - Promotion of genuine democracy and respect for human rights is the determining factor in building sustainable human development and lasting peace
 - Actions in support of democratisation and respect for human rights, including the right to participate in the establishment of governments through free and fair elections, can make a major contribution to peace, security and the prevention of conflicts.

EC Communication on election assistance and observation – COM (2000)191

- Defines assistance and observation and the extent of their complementarity:
 - Election assistance is the technical or material support given to the electoral process
 - Election observation is the political complement to election assistance
 - Technically speaking, they are different activities but essentially they should be considered and programmed in a complementary manner

EC Communication on election assistance and observation – COM(2000)191

- Suggests a strategy and methods for EU election assistance and observation in third countries:
 - Partnership between the EC and the host country
 - Flexible and case-by-case approach
 - Development of national capacity, including support to national Election Commissions and civil society organisations
 - Long term sustainability after an election and continuity of support
 - Promotion of pluralism of national actors, media and NGOs
 - Support to national observers
 - Importance of electoral registration and fair delimitation of electoral boundaries

EC Communication on election assistance and observation – COM(2000)191

□ Sets the criteria for Election Assistance:

- A request from the host government
- A general agreement of main political parties and other stakeholders to an EU electoral assistance programme
- Previous EU political monitoring or EU development programs in the host country
- Adequate time-frame for preparation
- Freedom of movement and access to national authorities
- Access to information
- Safety of the technical assistance team

EC Conference - 2004

Electoral support, achievements and challenges

Lessons learned

- Requests for assistance received late and for short-term interventions - late formulation of projects
- Too much focus on supporting the electoral event
- Temporary ad hoc institutions or massive deployment of international expertise without effective knowledge transfer, lack of capacity building to ensure sustainability of the process.
- Poor follow-up of EUEOM recommendations
- Absence of coherent methodology

Joint Training on Effective Electoral Assistance

About the Training

Welcome Course Information Background Learning Objectives

In line with the objectives of the Millennium Development Goals, this e-Learning course hopes to add to the recognition of elections as a critical channel in enhancing citizen participation in political life, and the achievement of the interlinked objectives of poverty alleviation and human development.

The Effective Electoral Assistance course targets EC and UNDP staff working at Headquarters and in the field, representatives of Electoral Management Bodies, staff from bilateral donor agencies and international/regional organizations, electoral experts, practitioners, academics and students.

We are looking forward to taking you through this eLearning journey in Effective Electoral Assistance where the core learning lies in improving your comprehension of the management of the sensitive relationship between the EU and UNDP services, Electoral Management Bodies, other electoral assistance provider, multilateral and bilateral agencies, political parties, media and service providers.

Welcome to the eLearning course on Effective Electoral Assistance.

Elections lie at the heart of every democracy and are central to countries undergoing democratic transitions.

Coordination with other actors (UNDP, IDEA, IOM, OAS, CIDA,...)

The screenshot shows the website for the European Commission United Nations Development Programme Partnership on Electoral Assistance. The header includes the logos of the European Commission and UNDP, and the title "Partnership on Electoral Assistance". Navigation links for "SITE MAP", "CONTACTS", "SEARCH", and "WHAT'S NEW" are visible.

The main content area features a sidebar with a menu: HOME, CONCEPTS, THE PARTNERSHIP, JOINT TASK FORCE, PROJECTS, ELECTORAL CYCLE APPROACH, TRAININGS & EVENTS, GLOBAL TOOLS, OPERATIONAL GUIDELINES, HANDBOOKS & PUBLICATIONS, LINKS, and PICTURES.

The main text area contains three paragraphs:

- HOME: The EC-UNDP partnership in electoral assistance is unique for its scope, for its achievements and ambitions. It builds on a history of sector experience, specific attention to the lessons learned in previous projects and a mutual understanding of each other's approaches, roles and capacities.
- JOINT TASK FORCE: The partnership is proving to be of increasing value to electoral assistance operations to the beneficiary countries, as it allows to rationalize interventions in the area and leads to better and timelier formulation, implementation and monitoring of projects, and is in line with the concepts of enhanced donor coordination from the March 2005 Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness. The resulting projects are consequently more effective, sustainable and in harmony with overall EU and UN objectives.
- OPERATIONAL GUIDELINES: The EC and UNDP have been collaborating in the field of electoral assistance since 1997 but it is since 2004, with the implementation of the project in support of the electoral processes in the Democratic Republic of Congo that the collaboration was strongly intensified, leading to the signature, in 2006, of the "Operational Guidelines for the Implementation of Electoral Assistance Programmes and Projects".

A fourth paragraph describes the partnership's heavy reliance on strong cooperation between services at the level of headquarters for quality support mechanisms available, including a Joint Task Force, formulation and monitoring missions, support for the selection of experts and procurement of election material, joint trainings, development of guidelines, gathering of lessons learned and participation to specialized electoral networks.

On the right side, there is a section titled "Download here the main two reference-tools for the formulation and implementation of Electoral Assistance Projects of the EC and UNDP" with a link to a document. Below this are logos for "Electoral Assistance Division", "EuropeAid", and "EU External Relations".

At the bottom of the main content area, there is a row of seven small photographs showing various electoral assistance activities, such as people at a meeting, a person at a computer, and a group of people outdoors.
