Assistance to Political Parties
Maputo, 23-28 June 2008
What comes to mind when you hear the term ‘political parties’?

– Actors in processes – elections, policy formation, opposition
– Democratic governance institutions – parliamentary and executive representatives
– Image and functioning
  - Self-interested
  - Discredited
  - Unrepresentative and undemocratic
  - Captured by elites
  - Not issue based
Table discussion (7 min)

What role do parties play in a democracy?

Why should we care about them?
What is the role of political parties in a democracy?

– Aggregate interests
– Structure the vote
– Integrate and mobilize the public
– Foster future political leaders
– Organize government
– Influence or form public policy
Why are Parties Important?

- Critical governance and electoral actors
- Have been left out of DG assistance
- Traditional assistance of limited utility – why much is ‘bouncing off’ parties
- Can be facilitators or spoilers of democratic gains
Value added?

- What do assistance providers bring?
- Electoral Cycle entry points:
  - Role in Institutions: EMBs, Parliaments, Government, Political Party Commissions
  - Role in Processes: Legal framework, voter+party/candidate registration, voter sensitization, campaign, pollwatching, electoral disputes, accepting results, conflict management
  - Functioning and Image: Codes of conduct, relations with media, internal rules and regulations, nomination procedures, financing of parties
Lessons Learned thus far: Do’s and Don’ts

DO
- Be aware
- Be non-partisan
- Be transparent and clear
- Be inclusive
- Be equitable
- Know your capacity
- Use HD/MDG agendas
- Focus on dialogue
- Think about the cycle
- When in doubt seek help

DON’T
- Give funding directly
- Favor parties over each other

BUT WHAT ABOUT?
- Parties and violence?
- Parties that prohibit women?
- Balancing democratic ideals with reinforcing status quo?
Thank you!
