Welcome to the ACE Practitioners’ Network – the first ever global knowledge network established in the field of elections.

The aim of this global community of electoral practice is to generate, share and disseminate specialised knowledge, resources and expertise to promote professional, effective and sustainable management of elections.

Questions answered by the Practitioners’ Network:
- Role of election boycotts in a democracy
- Floor-crossing in East Timor
- Candidate verification in Aceh
- Access to ballots for recount
- Ballot paper format in Madagascar
- Voting with marbles in the Gambia
- Campaign silence

You can use “Ask a Question” to pose pertinent, election-related questions to the members of the Practitioners’ Network and obtain substantive knowledge.
The network of Regional Electoral Resource Centers is mandated to collect, share and make knowledge accessible in the form of comparative data, resource materials, case studies and events. Develop a beneficiary-led approach to electoral assistance.
